'Jol' () is the Bengali word for 'water'. The other options represent 'fire' (Agni), 'air' (Paban), and 'sky' (Akash), respectively.

2

C) To indicate continuous tense (present or past)

The suffix '-te' () when added to a verb stem, typically indicates continuous tense. For example, 'kor-te' () translates to 'doing' or 'was doing'.

B) Apni kamon achen?

'Apni kamon achen?' ( ?) is the formal and respectful way to ask 'How are you?' in Bengali. 'Tumi kamon acho?' ( ?) is less formal, and 'Kemon achis?' ( ?) is very informal. 'Ki khobor?' ( ?) translates to 'What's the news?'.
